

PACIFIC BOX

An iconic adaptive reuse project in Charleston's North Morrison (NoMo) district, Pacific Box blends historic warehouse architecture with modern design and vibrant community energy. The campus features a dynamic mix of food, retail, wellness, and office space, all centered around lush courtyards and thoughtfully designed outdoor gathering areas.

More than a collection of buildings, Pacific Box is a destination—attracting entrepreneurs, creatives, and food lovers alike. With flexible floorplans, soaring ceilings, and strong visibility, the available retail spaces offer a rare opportunity to plug into one of Charleston's most forward-thinking communities.
